THE ARTIST

A house of slow builds, warm low end and patient floors.

Where Caribbean salt meets the Sierra Nevada — the studio sits between jungle and sea, and the records carry both.

Cris Argotti is a Colombian producer and DJ working in House and Indie Dance. Records are written, tracked and mixed in his studio on the Sierra Nevada de Santa Marta coast, then self-released and distributed independently to Spotify, SoundCloud and Beatport.

His productions sit at the intersection of groovy, sun-soaked House and the playful low end of Indie Dance: hypnotic loops, slow builds, and a warmth that travels well into the night.

On the booth, sets blend his own productions with House textures and Indie Dance bass from the labels he listens to — made for club rooms, festival stages and floors that reward patience. Currently open for headline, support and B2B bookings worldwide.
